TOOLS REQUIRED FOR INSTALLATION

PARTS

UNPACKING

1. Remove shipping base from stand (A) (See Figure 1).

NOTE: Attach screws, washers, and shipping base will not be reused.

ADJUSTMENT

NOTE: Adjustment can be accomplished at any time. However, it is more easily accomplished prior to stand or display installation.

1. To increase or decrease rotational tension, slightly loosen or tighten (as required) all three adjustment screws in stand (A) (See Figure 2)(See Figure 3). Use hex key (N).

Figure 3

2. OPTIONAL: If desired, the rotational range may be limited to $\pm 15^\circ$, $\pm 25^\circ$, or $\pm 35^\circ$ by installing screw (D) into one of three stop holes in stand (A) (See Figure 2)(See Figure 3). Use hex key (N).

NOTE: Without screw (D), the rotational range is limited to $\pm 45^\circ$.

STAND INSTALLATION

WARNING: Failure to provide adequate structural strength for this component can result in serious personal injury or damage to equipment! It is the installer's responsibility to make sure the structure to which this component is attached can support five times the combined weight of all equipment. Reinforce the structure as required before installing the component.

Standard

1. Peel adhesive backing from rubber bumpers (H) and affix to stand (A) (See Figure 4).

Figure 4

2. Route cables down through center pivot assembly and out through slot in rear of base (See Figure 4).

Secure

1. Temporarily attach template (B) to table at desired location, keeping in mind screen size and rotational range (See Figure 5). Ensure proper orientation of template (B).

2. Using template (B), drill four 5/16" (7.9mm) holes through table (See Figure 5).
3. OPTIONAL: Using template (B), drill cable management hole through table (See Figure 5). Ensure hole is of adequate diameter to accommodate cables and connectors.
4. Remove template (B) from table (See Figure 5).
5. Route cables down through center pivot assembly and out through slot in rear of base, or out through optional hole in table (See Figure 6).

Figure 6

6. From below table, insert screw (E) through washer (F) and rubber spacer (G) into hole. Place second rubber spacer (G) on screw (E), then thread screw into stand (A) using hex key (N) (See Figure 6). Repeat for each corner. Tighten screws securely.

DISPLAY INSTALLATION

WARNING: Exceeding the weight capacity can result in serious personal injury or damage to equipment! It is the installer's responsibility to make sure the combined weight of all components attached to the MSP-DCCLPSS does not exceed 50 lbs (22 kg).

CAUTION: Using screws of improper diameter may damage your display! Proper screws will easily thread into display mounting holes. Do not overtighten screws!

1. Select proper screw diameter by examining screws (J, 4mm; K, 6mm) and comparing with mounting holes on display. Install selected screws (J or K) through washers (L) and stand (A) into display (See Figure 7).

NOTE: Figure 7 shows typical installation. Stand (A) accommodates multiple Dell displays. Choose holes/slots in stand (A) that match mounting hole pattern in display. Cables not shown for clarity.

2. Slide cover (C) under tabs in stand (A). Ensure that cables are not pinched (See Figure 8). Secure in place with screws (M).
